THERE'S STILL TIME.

There's still time to partner with us to share the Gospel in Peru.

If God impresses you to partner with us through financial support on our latest adventure to Peru, there are still several areas where your assistance would be a great encouragement.

- ◆ We continue to gather supplies, curriculum and craft items to take with us.
 - ◆ The custom vent mask has been ordered, with about $450 remaining to pay it off from designated funds.
 - ◆ There are food and personal items the Frerichs have asked if we could bring with us.
 - ◆ We are also looking into purchasing two violins with cases for the Frerichs daughters to use in ministry.
- $500—Craft/ outreach supplies
 $450— Vent mask (remaining amount)
 $150— Personal items for Frerichs
 $700— 2 Violins with cases for Janessa and Jordyn Frerichs

THANK YOU FOR PARTNERING WITH US THROUGH PRAYER AND FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.

Pray with Us . . .

✓ Diane is just completing her third round of antibiotics for a sinus and lung infection. We were in emergency once again, a few weeks ago. Thankfully, it has been nearly six months since the last infection. She is feeling better as I complete this newsletter. We continue to pray for complete healing.

✓ Betty Sponseller is undergoing heart surgery that requires her to be placed in a coma after the 12 hour surgery. She needs our prayers for a speedy and complete recovery. Her husband, Jerry, has pastored at Opportunity Baptist for 25 years and he just resigned the ministry there. Your prayers of encouragement would be valued.

✓ Continue to pray for improving health for LaRae Damschen and for the sale of her house and property.

Thoughts from Diane . . . Changes

We've been through so many changes throughout our marriage. Moving (20+ times), different states, different churches, loss. Before I even married, my brother was killed when he was only seventeen years old. That was huge for a fifteen year old brand new Christian. When you have a major event occur like that it changes everything. Mostly it changes the heart and choices of the one who experiences it and is closest to the event. Others cannot understand the emotion and depth of loss that a person goes through, because God created the people He made as individuals, unique in every way. We can have empathy for those who are our friends and loved ones. We can offer comfort, strength and love as they have a need. Ultimately we can go into God's throne room in dedicated prayer. We can also spend many, many hours getting to know God by faithfully staying in His Word and preparing ourselves for wherever He requires us to serve.

Recently we had a little dog named Chico. I met a woman on my bus route who breeds Shih Tzu's. After that I developed a plan. I wanted to surprise George. I knew who sired the puppy and who the female was. The pregnancy happened and I surprised George when he returned from a mission trip. It was so much fun and I loved Chico before George got to know him. Chico became the first indoor dog we'd had since the kids left home. Over the year and a half God allowed us to have Chico, we became so attached. He was a breeze to teach all the necessities. He was very easy to love. When he became extremely sick, we, along with our vet, did everything to bring him back to health. That didn't happen. He died. We became overwhelmed with loss, again. We knew the separation was permanent. Jesus died for the lost sinner, not animals. That made it harder to let him go. We suffered a lot of grief. Not like I did when my brother, Bobby, was killed, not like when we had to unplug our son, Ben, from life support but still a difficult loss.

Change happens in everyone's lifetime. Some changes are filled with joy, others with overwhelming sadness. The difference for those who accept Christ in this life is that we have a HOPE ("CONFIDENT ASSURANCE") that no one can take away. When I was young and came so close to death because of serious illness, I became filled with fear. I had no idea what would become of me if I died. God used that fear to lead me to His saving grace. September 12, 1963 was the day that fear ended. I have a HOPE that not only gives me strength throughout my lifetime but will lead me home to Heaven, eternity with Jesus! There's no greater comfort and peace than to know that someday I'll see Jesus face to face.

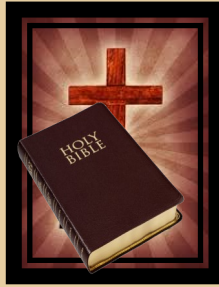

"Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows." James 1:17

Want irrefutable proof that Jesus is the Son of God, just like He said? Read the first verses of James and Jude. These were the half-brothers of Jesus who grew up with Him. There written testimony is powerful evidence that Jesus is Lord and Savior Who died for all.
